

Component layout

- keep heavy parts close to center & a lower center of mass (reduces instability)
- place communicating electronics close to each other
- keep wiring paths short & tidy - group wires
- leave space for cooling / maintenance access
- plan mounting points

notes:

- when all parts are gathered, calc the necessary length & be aware of spacing
- might need counter weights